

17 Reasons to Go on a CCA Short-Term Mission

1. God says, "Go." (Hard to argue with that one.)
2. Giving care to people who deeply appreciate it.
3. You should be taking several weeks of vacation each year anyway - how about tithing one of those weeks to God?
4. People - your patients, your friends and family, love to help with things like this. Give them an opportunity to invest in an eternally significant event. Ask them for support.
5. There is no greater opportunity to do things we love.
6. No insurance forms, PPO's, HMO's or HIPAA
7. Opportunity to see parts of the world you will never see otherwise.
8. Chance to see foreign locations from a perspective you can't duplicate on a vacation.
9. Opportunity to meet people in other nations who love God with all their heart.
10. We can be an example to people at home - vendors, patients, neighbors - who are watching how we live out our love for God.
11. God says, "Go." (Still hard to argue with this.)
12. It is good to stretch your envelope. Ruts are muddy and lead to deeper ruts.
13. Get to know Christ-dedicated, Chiropractic-minded people.
14. Significant trading of minutes for eternal rewards.
15. Easy steps into taking the Gospel to the world.
16. Encouraging the worldwide church.
17. God says, "Go."
(Alright! Stop arguing, call the CCA, and go, already.)

Dr. Charles Roost joined the CCA in 1989 and has served in several leadership capacities. He practices in Lansing, Michigan.
